

Janice Munt
Chairperson, Better Health Network

Over the course of her substantial career in leadership and policy roles, Janice has held several positions requiring a deep understanding of governance and complex stakeholder engagement. She possesses demonstrably strong skills in leadership and consultation, having started her career in small, customer-focused businesses.

Janice is a former Victorian Member of Parliament. During her 8 years as an MP, she was Acting Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and co-chair of Women's Caucus and further developed her skills consulting with all levels of government, community and business, whilst advocating for reform programs and new initiatives with lasting benefits to Victoria.

As Parliamentary Secretary for Health, Janice was also involved in administering a complex $15 billion State Government Department, which included high-level policy development and implementation, and expertise in the critical policy area of healthcare.

She studied economics and politics at Monash University and is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. She has a long history of volunteer work with various schools, kindergartens, environmental groups, women's organisations and the homeless.

Janice was appointed Chair of Central Bayside Community Health Services (CBCHS) in November 2018.

Her mission is to lead the Board of Better Health Network with vision, values and purpose so as to help ensure community health continue to deliver critical services for the local community.
